44 MINUTES NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

Bishop and Brethren of the North Arkansas Conference:

We rejoice to bring you notes of victory, and reports of rapidly expanding possibilities in our mission fields. You have heard the report of our work in Korea in the address delivered by Rev. C. N. Weems, our own returned missionary. A great evangelistic campaign is in progress in Japan which is resulting in remarkable advancement in the Master's Kingdom. Our missionaries in China, Africa, Cuba, and Brazil are being overworked in their efforts to enter the open doors before them. Our work in Mexico, torn and bleeding from internal dissensions, is still greatly hindered in its progress.

There has been advancement in the mission charges of the Conference. A number of these have become self-sustaining.

After listening to a thorough discussion of the subject by Dr. Rawlings of the Home Board, we recommend that the first Sunday in March be designated by the Conference as the day for a simultaneous every-member canvass for the Conference benevolences, and since our Secretaries inform us that twelve additional missionaries could be supported with the interest they must pay out on account of delayed collections, we also recommend that the mission assessments be paid early in the year.

Since several new mission charges are being formed we recommend the same assessment as last year for Conference Missions, $9,384. Our apportionment fixed by the General Board is for Foreign Missions $13,800, and that for Home Missions is $4,416, all of which amounts to but 46 cents per capita.

These assessments are apportioned among the districts as follows:

	Foreign	Home and Conference
Batesville	$ 1,576	$ 1,576
Booneville	1,324	1,324
Conway	1,515	1,515
Fayetteville	1,500	1,500
Ft. Smith	1,484	1,484
Helena	1,500	1,500
Jonesboro	1,628	1,628
Paragould	1,520	1,520
Searcy	1,753	1,753
Total	$13,800	$13,800

We name the following committee on Conference Evangelism:

A. F. Skinner	W. B. Hays	J. L. Bryant
Elisha Dyer	W. T. Martin	A. E. Holloway
J. F. E. Bates	J. H. O'Bryant	W. T. Wilkerson

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH 45

We recommend the appointment of W. H. Neal and J. R. Ashmore, District Evangelists; J. T. Gossett, W. B. Wolf, and J. L. Bryant, Conference Evangelists, and John B. Andrews, General Evangelist.

The name of H. E. Wheeler is presented for appointment as Conference Missionary Secretary.

Your Board received from the Conference Treasurer the following amounts, the total of which is but 28 cents per capita:

Foreign Missions	$ 8,061.22
Conference Missions	5,483.84
Home Missions	2,580.63
Total	$16,369.74

REPORT ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS

DEAR BRETHREN:--It is gratifying to know that there was a considerable increase in the business of our Publishing House during the past year. While there was a loss on the publication of our Methodist Review, the Christian Advocate, and The Epworth Era of $11,353.97, there was a gain in the sales of our Publishing House of $121,171.80, a net gain of $109,817.83.

The circulation of the Methodist Review is 3,800, The Christian Advocate 15,000, and the Epworth Era 21,000.

Our Sunday School literature grows in favor with our people and its circulation shows a steady increase.

An appropriation of $15,000.00 from the proceeds of the business of the publishing house has been made by the book committee for our superannuates, widows, and orphans for the present year.

The Methodist Review under the able editorial management of Dr. H. M. DuBose should be in the hands of all our preachers. The Christian Advocate, Missionary Voice, and Epworth Era are second to none and are worthy the patronage of all our people.

We wish, however, in this report to place special emphasis on the Arkansas Methodist so ably edited by Dr. A. C. Millar and so economically managed by our Publishing Commissioners. We think the Arkansas Methodist is now equal to, if not superior to, any conference organ in Southern Methodism. It serves the important purpose of keeping before our constituency our work, and furnishes our people with church news and good reading matter from many of our best writers. The recent great victory in our State for prohibition was due largely to the strong editorials and other articles on the subject published in that paper.

We are informed from the report of the Commissioners that notwithstanding the strictest economy in the management of the paper and the self-sacrificing labor of Dr. Millar, there is a deficit of about $2,400.00 in current expenses. There is, however, about $8,000.00 due the paper in unpaid subscriptions.

We, therefore, recommend that the month of February, 1917 be set apart as a "Campaign Month" for the Arkansas Methodist at which time, we shall endeavor to secure, at least, 3,000 new subscribers in our Conference, this number to be apportioned among the several districts by the editor and the presiding elders.

We, furthermore, recommend that Dr. F. S. H. Johnston, J. K. Farrish, and J. M. Williams be continued as Commissioners for the paper.

Respectfully submitted,

H. LYNN WADE, President.

A. F. SKINNER, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS

Report Number Two

DEAR BRETHREN:—In accordance with the action of the last annual Conference which was held at Conway, Ark., that one-half of the purchase price of the Western Methodist, $4,000.00, our portion, be paid in two annual payments of $2,000.00 each. In order to meet the last payment, we, your committee, recommend that an assessment be made upon the several districts as follows:

Batesville District	$225.00
Booneville District	215.00
Conway District	230.00
Helena District	230.00
Ft. Smith District	230.00
Fayetteville District	230.00
Jonesboro District	230.00
Paragould District	225.00
Searcy District	235.00

We, further, recommend that this amount be collected during the month of February, "Campaign Month," for the Arkansas Methodist, and that each presiding elder see to it that this is done, get this amount into his hands and forward the same to Dr. James Thomas, Treasurer, Little Rock, Ark.

Respectfully submitted,

H. L. WADE, President.

A. F. SKINNER, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

DEAR BRETHREN:—Your Board of Church Extension begs to report as follows:

The past year has been one of great progress in the bounds of our Conference. Thousands have been saved and added to the church. Material prosperity has come to our membership. Many new churches and parson-ages have been enterprised and others have been repaired and improved. Twenty-six applications for aid were before your Board. Although the contributions to this cause exceed that of former years, yet it is easily seen that the demands upon us are beyond our resources.

Surely calls so important and urgent cannot fail to solicit the interest of every member of this body.

Your Board has been studying how it may increase the efficiency of its work. During the coming year it plans to publish in the Arkansas Methodist a series of articles relating to the work of Church Extension which we trust will stimulate increased interest in our work.

It also hopes to be duly represented at your District Conferences and to have the importance of this cause presented to the Lay Leaders of the several districts. In order to increase the efficiency of the work of your Board, and after due consideration, the two following resolutions were adopted:

1. Resolved, That it is the sense of this body that the Conference Board of Church Extension secure all its donations amounting to $100 or more by means of mortgage and refunding bonds and that this business be administered through the general office.

2. Resolved, That it is the sense of this Board that all our people who contemplate asking for aid from the Board of Church Extension for the erection of churches, either by loan or donation, submit their financial methods and the plans of their churches to the Corresponding Secretary of the General Board and secure his approval of the same.

The following amounts have been received on assessments:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

To the Bishop and Members of the North Arkansas Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—The Board of Education submits the following report:

HENDRIX COLLEGE

The report of the President of Hendrix College shows that the last year has been one of progress for the institution. The enrollment for the last year, which reached 267, was the largest enrollment in the history of the college. A great revival in the town of Conway not only deepened the spiritual life of those in the college who were already Christians but resulted in the conversion of many who were not Christians. A comprehensive health system has been put into operation, which secures for the students and faculty excellent sanitary conditions and ample protection against the spread of infectious and contagious diseases.

The greatest need of the college at the present time is better equipment with which to carry on its work. That this may be obtained a well planned campaign has been launched which looks to the raising of $500,000 for building and endowment. This campaign commends itself to the Methodists of Arkansas who appreciate the great importance of Christian education. It is sincerely hoped that the plan will result in providing the means which are necessary to make Hendrix College one of the best institutions of its class in the South.

We make the following recommendations:

1. That the summer school for ministers, which is conducted in connection with Hendrix College, be heartily commended by the North Arkansas Conference, and that an assessment of $700 be placed upon the Conference to help defray the expenses of this school.

2. That we give our hearty endorsement to the plan to hold a Sunday School Institute for Superintendents, teachers, and pastors in connection with the summer school next June.

3. That Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues in the Conference be urged to take upon themselves the task of endowing a chair of Bible and Religious Education in Hendrix College, as their part of the campaign for endowment.

4. That an assessment of $3,500 be made upon the Conference this year for Hendrix College.

5. That the following trustees be appointed for the term indicated:
Rev. A E. Holloway, 1916-22.

G. L. Bahner, (Alumni), 1916-22.

6. That the selection of Dr. Jas. Thomas as Commissioner of Education for Hendrix College, and Dr. F. S. H. Johnson and Rev. W. B. Hubbell, as agents, be approved, and that the Bishop be requested to appoint these men to their work.

GALLOWAY COLLEGE

Never in the history of Galloway College has the institution had such patronage as this year. Since the school opened in September, every room in the building has been filled, and already thirty girls have been turned away for lack of accommodations. The student body is composed of girls from the best homes in Arkansas, and is characterized by a very high moral tone. It would be difficult to find a more excellent student body than that which is found in the walls of Galloway. The character of work which is done by the faculty and the students is second to none. The music department is as good as can be found anywhere in the Southwest.

54 MINUTES NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE

But the report of the President indicates that the college is not without its pressing needs. Lack of material equipment is making it impossible for the institution to do its most efficient service for the womanhood of Arkansas. Funds are needed to employ the best teachers to be had and to enlarge the building so as to accommodate the rapidly increasing patronage of the college. We most earnestly urge that Methodism in Arkansas see to it that an endowment is raised at the earliest possible moment with which to make possible the permanency and the larger efficiency of the institution. The importance of the education of the womanhood of Arkansas demands that this matter be given attention immediately. The Board makes the following recommendations:

1. That Rev. W. C. Watson be re-elected Commissioner of Education for Galloway, and that the President and the Board of Trustees be allowed to place in the field as many assistants as they may desire to use in making the campaign for the needed endowment.
2. That the Conference make an assessment of $3,500 this year for Galloway College.
3. That R. A. Dowdy be elected trustee to succeed himself, and that Rev. J. S. Seneker be elected Trustee to fill the vacancy made by the transfer of Rev. J. D. Hammons.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

We rejoice at the marvelous success which has attended the efforts of the Commission of the General Conference to establish a University for Southern Methodism west of the Mississippi. The Southern Methodist University with assets amounting to $2,294,735, and with a faculty which is second to none in the South, is an institution of which Methodism may justly be proud. We feel that Arkansas Methodism should have a deep interest in the development and success of the post-graduate and professional schools of the University, especially the school of Theology. Therefore, we make the following recommendation:

1. That as a Conference we give our hearty endorsement to what has been accomplished by the Educational Commission.
2. That we hereby give our hearty approval of the action of the Commission in selecting Rev. J. K. Farris as one of the Trustees of Southern Methodist University, who, it is understood, does not represent the North Arkansas Conference, but as the charter expressly states is chosen from our territory, yet is no less a Trustee representing the entire church.
3. That it will be our aim to the extent of our ability to support all graduate or strictly University work at the Southern Methodist University since it has the authorization and support of the General Conference, and that we recommend all our young preachers who complete their work at Hendrix College and who desire to further prosecute their studies in Theology to attend Southern Methodist University School of Theology.
4. That in line with the suggestion made by the General Conference Education Commission, and in harmony with the work being done by the other Conferences west of the Mississippi River we declare our purpose to do our part toward the endowment of a chair in the School of Theology at Southern Methodist University, and invite Bishop E. D. Mouzon and Dr. C. S. Wright in co-operation with our annual Conference Board of Education to work out plans whereby this may be done at the earliest practical moment.

5. That pending the raising of this endowment we assume an assessment equal to two cents per member for the support of the School of Theology at Southern Methodist University.

SLOAN-HENDRIX ACADEMY

Sloan-Hendrix Academy is proving itself one of the best academies in the church. It meets all of the requirements made by the General Board of Education, and is rapidly gaining in favor not only in our own Conference, but also abroad. We most heartily commend the work that is being done by Prof. J. C. Eaton and his faculty, and we make the following recommendations:

1. That the General Board of Education be asked to continue the appropriation of $1,000 for the support of this school.

2. That the General Board be asked to give an additional $500.00 to be used in the establishment of a Manual Training Department, on condition that Imboden raise a similar amount for this purpose.

3. That an assessment of $500.00 be placed upon the Conference for the support of Sloan-Hendrix.

4. That M. F. Henderson be appointed Trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of J. L. McKamey.

GENERAL RECOMMENDATIONS

With regard to other educational interests of the church the Board makes recommendations as follows:

1. That Rev. J. K. Farris be appointed Conference Secretary of Education.

2. That G. G. Davidson, Dr. Jas. A. Anderson, and Dr. F. S. H. Johnson be appointed Trustees of Gentry Academy property.

3. That M. L. Turnbow, C. Miller, R. C. Bowden, R. Bringle, C. K. Campbell, W. J. Brown, W. M. Simpson be appointed Trustees of College Hill property in Dover, Arkansas, and that the money derived from the sale of this property be used in providing a parsonage for the M. E. Church, South, in Dover, Arkansas.

4. That the attention of the presiding elders and the Committee on Admission on Trial be called to the law of the last General Conference, requiring a high school education or equivalent before candidate can be admitted to the Conference on trial, and that we urge the enforcement of this law.

5. That the following students be appointed to the college indicated: O. L. Cole and J. G. McCullum to Southern Methodist University.

6. That the assessments made for educational work be distributed as follows: (See table of assessments.)

56 MINUTES NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE

We have received on assessments for the past year $5,874.88, and disbursed the same as follows:

Printing Minutes	$ 60.00
Hendrix College	1,895.00
Galloway College	1,895.00
Sloan-Hendrix Academy	290.00
Summer School	290.00

COMMITTEE ON SUPERANNUATE HOMES

DEAR BRETHREN:—We, your committee appointed to submit a plan for the inauguration of the Superannuate Homes movement in the North Arkansas Conference beg leave to report that we deem it unwise to project this movement without a more careful study of the subject than was possible in the time allotted to us, and we request the continuation of the committee with instructions to make careful inquiry into its merits and submit the results of our study to the next session of the Annual Conference.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

DEAR BRETHREN:—The reports this year show the following:

Number of Sunday Schools	522
Officers and Teachers	4,474
Wesley Bible Classes	176
Sunday School Pupils Joining Church.....	2,508
Amount Raised for Missions: On Special.....	$ 1,473.00
On Assessment	3,892.00
Children's Day Fund	812.00
Supplies	20,383.00
Other Objects	6,591.00
A Total of	$31,515.00

The report of the General Board shows a good increase in the work of the Sunday School in all its departments throughout the church. We are endeavoring to bring the work of our Board and our schools into harmony with the plans of the General Board, both as to district organization and institute work. To accomplish this, we invite the co-operation of all the Boards and Committees of the Conference.

We had with us Dr. J. W. Shackford and Mr. A. L. Dietrich, both of whom gave us helpful counsel. We appreciate the work done by our Field Secretary, Rev. W. A. Lindsay, and regret that we have come to a condition of our finances where we cannot keep a secretary in the field the coming year. We feel that in this we are taking a decidedly backward step.

We urge the importance of Children's Day. The Discipline is mandatory in regard to it. Not to observe the day is to disobey the express law of the church, and cut off the main money supply of this Board.

We want the Sunday Schools to have the largest possible part in the forward educational and missionary movement of the church, but we insist that the schools are worthy of more notice than is given them.

This Board finds itself with a deficit of approximately seven hundred dollars ($700.00), for which it must provide. The Children's Day fund at the present rate is not sufficient to care for it. We ask that the regular collection of every school in this Conference on the first Sunday in February, 1917, or as near thereto as practicable be turned over to this Board to help take care of this deficit.

We had a communication from President Reynolds of Hendrix College, suggesting that the Sunday Schools of Arkansas undertake to raise forty thousand dollars ($40,000.00) for the endowment of a chair of Bible and Religious Education in the College. We also had a communication from Dr. C. S. Wright of Southern Methodist University, to name the second Sunday in March as Religious Education Day in the Sunday Schools of this Conference and to take a special collection to be applied on the endowment of the Department of Sunday School Pedagogy in Southern Methodist University. We are in sympathy with these movements, but with the present condition of our work and the increasing number of requests for special days in the Sunday School, we do not think it best to concur unconditionally in these requests. We do recommend, however, that the persons engaged in these endowment campaigns present the matter to any school if the pastor agrees to such presentation.

We urge the observance of College Day according to the plan adopted by the General Board.

We rejoice that one of the ten district institutes to be held by the General Board during the coming year is to be held in connection with the Summer School at Hendrix College, the General Board agreeing to furnish a program for two days. We urge all pastors, superintendents, and Sunday School workers to attend this institute.

We ask each Presiding Elder to give his hearty support to efforts to perfect district organization in his district and to provide for at least one institute this year. In this institute work this Board will heartily co-operate.

We report the election of the following conference departmental superintendents:

Organization—Sidney Pickens,Batesville, Ark.
Elementary—Miss Dove ErwinNewport, Ark.

58 MINUTES NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE

Wesley Bible Class—W. A. Lindsay..... Ark.

Teacher Training—W. J. LeRoy Ark.

We ask that an assessment of one per cent. of preacher's salary be levied on each charge that does not observe Children's Day and remit the collection to the Sunday School Board, said collection to be reported as Children's Day fund.

All money for the Sunday School Boards should be remitted at once to the Treasurer, Rev. C. W. Lester, Clarendon, Ark.

We urge all schools to observe Mission Day as directed by the Discipline, and ask as many of our schools and classes as can do so to undertake some missionary special. We recommend that every school be allowed to make a Christmas offering to our Methodist Orphanage, with the privilege of applying same on assessment.

W. T. MARTIN, Chairman.

C. W. LESTER, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

We, your committee, beg to submit the following report:

The Sabbath is the bulwark of the church, a support of our national life; it is the day when our world is still and knows that God is God.

We cannot be quiet and not cry out against its desecration. We will not allow our Sabbath taken from us without our strongest possible protest. Do away with it and labor will not rest, our churches will be empty, and the voice of the ministry will not be heard in the land.

We urge that our ministry make it a day of rest and worship for their own lives. Let us try to induce our people to leave secular literature out of their Sabbath reading. Help them to make the Sabbath day's journey one that takes them to God's house. Why make nature, dumb beasts, and tired labor do duty to our lust for sin and worldly pleasure?

Let us be in the Spirit on the Lord's day. May divine joy fill our hearts when it is said: "Let us go into the house of the Lord," for our Sabbath is a type of that day of heavenly rest and gladness.

F. A. LARK, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL COMMITTEE OF THE NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE

To the Bishop and Members of the North Arkansas Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—The financial depression throughout this section during the first nine months of the year made it impossible to project a large and liberal campaign for the hospital, and our Field Secretary has therefore been greatly hampered in his work. But he has raised over $36,000 for our proposed hospital, more than $16,000 of which is in cash. All expenses, including the annual note on our property and accrued interest, have been paid and there is a balance of $1,450 in the treasury.

Our Hospital Commissioners have adopted plans adequate to meet the crying need and worthy of our people's ability. Our ample site was the promise of large things. The architectural plans provide for a building of five units, affording, when complete, five hundred beds. The Board purposes first building the three front units, the main and central unit to be seven stories high, and the east and west units, or wings, to be five stories each; thus providing three hundred beds.

The need for our Methodist Hospital is most urgent. The hospital facilities of this section do not by any means meet the demand, and the poor and dependent are especially without provision of this kind. The Baptists are in the midst of a vigorous campaign to double the capacity of their hospital in Memphis and we Methodists must not longer lag behind. We must prove to all men that our loved church makes her members as tender of heart and helpful of hand as those of any denomination in the world.

We are glad to hear of the large plans on foot for the campaign in the city of Memphis under the leadership of an acknowledged expert, and that there is every promise of great success. We also commend the wise and opportune determination of the Hospital Board to place other solicitors in the field as soon as suitable persons can be found.

HOSPITAL DAY

We join the other co-operating Conferences in setting apart January 27th, 1917, the 4th Sunday, as HOSPITAL DAY, and we hereby request all our Presiding Elders and Preachers in Charge to observe the day in all our churches, Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues, and that our people be urged to make large and liberal offerings to this great benevolence and home missionary enterprise of our church.

It is proposed that each of the four interested Conferences at once raise five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) to endow a room in the Methodist Hospital in which its own preachers can receive surgical and medical treatment and care free of any charge whenever it may be needed. The Memphis and North Mississippi Conferences have already pledged themselves to do this. We must also have such a room and we should raise the money NOW.

Our Field Secretary has been diligent and faithful and has done well in the face of many difficulties. Let us give him our earnest prayers and heartiest co-operation.

We recommend the election of J. K. Farris, J. R. Nelson, T. J. Boston, W. E. Jelks and W. B. Mann as our Hospital Commissioners.

(Signed)

J. P. WOMACK, Secretary.

For the Committee.

60 MINUTES NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

We, your Committee on Temperance, report as follows:

We rejoice in the defeat of Act No. 2. The large majority of dry votes indicates a temperance sentiment. It is gratifying to note that the counties which were wet before our state-wide law went into effect, voted dry in this election. We give thanks to God for this victory.

This Conference should extend a vote of thanks to Hon. George Thornburgh for the work he did without fear or hope of reward, also to Dr. A. C. Millar for the telling work of the Arkansas Methodist. We also express our appreciation of the work done by the Arkansas Gazette and the county papers throughout the state. The colored people in many places lined up for temperance and we honor them for their part in the victory.

We recommend:

1. That the Conference put itself on record as endorsing the work of the Anti-Saloon League and pledge it our support.
2. That we respectfully ask our next legislature to enact a law regulating the delivery of whiskey, and prohibiting advertising it in the state.
3. That the Bishop appoint D. H. Colquette, Jas. A. Anderson, J. P. Womack, W. T. Thompson and S. W. Simpson trustees of the Anti-Saloon League.

Respectfully submitted,

R. E. L. BEARDEN, Secretary.

BIBLE SOCIETY

To the Bishop and the Members of the North Arkansas Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—This year marks the centennial of the American Bible Society. The work done and the progress made for the past century has been a source of encouragement and inspiration. During this time the society has distributed one hundred seventeen and a half million volumes of scripture, in one hundred and fifty different languages. It is gratifying to note the growth of the work. Last year all records were broken. More than seven and a half million volumes were distributed. The Southern Agency has just closed the best year of its history. Over one hundred thousand volumes of scripture were distributed the past year.

The work with the soldiers on the border deserves special mention. Fifteen thousand Testaments have been distributed among the soldiers. But the society needs funds for forty thousand additional Testaments for the soldiers yet unsupplied. This is a great opportunity for Bible work among our young men. The society must not be allowed to fail in this great undertaking.

We recommend that Sunday, Jan. 14, be set apart as Army Testament Day, at which time the pastors will bring before their people the great work of supplying the soldiers with the word of God.

We are glad to have engaged in this work a member of our own Conference, Rev. D. H. Colquett. We recommend that he be appointed for the coming year, to the work in which he is now engaged as Field Agent for the American Bible Society.

Respectfully submitted,

D. H. COLQUETT, Chairman.

J. B. STEWART, Secretary.

THE REPORT OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

DEAR BRETHREN:—We rejoice to report the Epworth Leagues strong and aggressive. A splendid conference was held at Newport, Ark., in June, 1916. It completed its work by electing a good body of officers with E. H. Thomas, President, and A. W. Martin, Vice-President.

The Leaguers were enthusiastic and a number gave themselves for definite service. A pledge of more than $600 was made for the Africa special.

The League is one of the greatest organizations in the church for reaching the young life. We therefore urge that the preachers give the leagues special attention, and organize them as directed in the Discipline. No preacher has a right to neglect the young life of the church.

We especially commend the Epworth Era to the members of the League, also we commend the Arkansas Methodist, and express our gratitude to its editor for space in its pages.

The Epworth League Anniversary Day, ordered by the General Conference (the second Sunday in May) has not been fully observed in our Conference, we again call attention to it, and urge our pastors and Epworth League Presidents to observe the day, and turn the collections into the hands of the treasurer of the North Arkansas Epworth League Conference.

We recommend intensive League work by the preachers. There are many fields waiting to be organized, and we pray that the preachers will look after them. We recommend strong and active district organizations. We are glad to note that there has been a substantial increase in the number of Leagues organized this year, and the Leagues have given more to the church than ever before.

Respectfully submitted,

J. J. GALLOWAY, Chairman.

H. C. HOY, Secretary.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH

To the President and Members of the North Arkansas Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—We have listened with much interest to the reports of the Presiding Elders and pastors from their respective districts and charges, and rejoice in the progress made along material lines. A great many church debts have been paid and a number of churches and parsonages have been built and dedicated within the year.

More charges have paid pastors' and presiding elders' salaries in full.

than ever before in the history of the church. There has also been an increase in the amounts paid on all the other assessments laid on the church.

Another indication of spiritual awakening is seen in the great number of men entering the active ministry of the church, also in the increased interest taken in our schools and colleges for the education of our young men and young women.

But while we are making such strides along material and intellectual lines, we fear sometimes that the spiritual side of our work is sadly neglected.

But the fact that we have had about ten thousand conversions in the Conference this year shows that we are not neglecting altogether this phase of our work. But a fact to be deplored is that a comparatively small number of these converts join the church. Only about sixty-five per cent. Where is the other thirty-five per cent.?

We, therefore, recommend:

1. That our pastors make known to all at the time of conversion the importance of uniting with the church that they may have the fellowship of God's people to assist them in working out their salvation.

2. That we stress more and more the necessity of the New Birth without which no one can enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Then we need to insist on the daily reading of the Holy Scriptures, and a deeper and more earnest prayer-life among our people, emphasizing especially secret devotion and family worship.

3. In as much as we believe the spiritual life of the church depends largely on its attitude toward missions, we recommend an educational campaign, giving our people a real vision of the work of the Master and the work of the church, which is the salvation of the world.

Respectfully submitted,

M. B. UMSTED, Chairman.

A. H. DULANEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF METHODIST ORPHANAGE BOARD

During the past year we had some sickness and some interruptions in our work, but the Lord has overruled it all to our good, as we verily believe.

On February 1st, Mrs. M. L. Bonner resigned as Matron and the place was filled by Mrs. L. D. Litts. In February the Executive Committee engaged the Rev. J. R. Sanders and wife, he as Superintendent, and she, as Assistant Matron. Brother Sanders soon found that he was not strong enough physically to fill the place and resigned the middle of June. The internal affairs of the Home were in better shape.

At the close of last year, Sept. 30, 1915, there were 31 children in the Home. During the year we received 26, placed in good homes 21, and 1 died, leaving 35 in the Home Sept. 30, 1916. We received more children this year and have more in the Home now than any previous year. We received all told since the organization of the Home, 284 children

Brother Thornburgh expended from the special fund collected by him during the year, $2,316.26. This makes $37,317.56 collected by him and invested in the Institution. About $34,000.00 has been spent on the building and grounds and the balance in furniture, etc.

We are sorry to report that the funds provided for the running expenses of the Institution were exhausted in July, and we have been borrowing on personal endorsement money to run the Home since that time. The assessment was made for the Institution ten years ago when we only had twelve children in the Home, and it has only been increased 25 per cent. We now have 35 children, which is 300 per cent. increase, and everything that is consumed is very much higher than when the estimate was made.

We recommend that this Conference be assessed $3,000.00, apportioned as follows:

Batesville District	$320.00
Searcy District	335.00
Booneville District	335.00
Conway District	335.00
Fayetteville District	335.00
Fort Smith District	335.00
Helena District	335.00
Jonesboro District	335.00
Paragould District	335.00

J. B. STEVENSON, Chairman.

M. P. TIMBERLAKE, Secretary.

REPORT ON CONFERENCE RELATION

To the Bishop and Members of the North Arkansas Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—We, your Committee on Conference Relation, have carefully considered the persons whose names have been referred to us for superannuate and supernumerary relation, and unanimously we make the following recommendations:

For Superannuate Relation—S. H. Blackwell, H. T. Gregory, M. M. Smith, Cadesman Pope, A. W. Anderson, A. C. Griffin, S. S. Key, G. W. O. Davis, S. F. Dykes, A. Mathis, T. A. Martin, B. Monk, R. M. Traylor, L. A. Blevins, J. W. Griffin, G. L. Horton, J. S. Watson, H. A. Armstrong, F. M. Smith, T. C. Steele, N. E. Skinner, O. H. Tucker, Fred Little, Z. T. Bennett, Z. W. Lindsey, O. J. Beardslee, W. B. Johnsey, J. H. Cummins, and C. H. Nelson.

For Supernumerary Relation—G. M. Barton, J. W. Howard, W. H. Dyer, J. E. Woodruff, J. H. Sturdy, J. H. Dye, S. F. Brown, A. M. R. Branson, and W. P. Talkington.

The names of L. W. Fair, W. T. Southworth, and H. A. May we refer back to the Conference without recommendation.

Respectfully submitted,

H. HANESWORTH, Chairman.

G. McGLUMPHY, Secretary.

UNIFICATION OF AMERICAN METHODISM

Resolved, That the North Arkansas Conference does hereby declare its profound interest in the effort now making for the Unification of American Methodism; that we do devoutly hope for and pray for a happy consummation of this great design; that we most respectfully call upon the Commissioners who represent our branch of Methodism to use every endeavor to find a way to consummate this union, as respects especially the two Episcopal Methodisms of America. We cherish the hope that the process will go forward till there shall be but one Methodism throughout our nation, divided for purposes of administration into such jurisdictional units as may best serve the great purpose for which all Methodism stands.

Our Methodist fathers of 1844 did substantially right on both sides. The Southern delegates in that great General Conference could not have made any other record than that they did make and yet left themselves in position to do the work Providence has assigned to the Methodism of the South. It is equally true that the Northern delegates were in a like situation as to the responsibilities of the Methodism of the North. As for the asperities developed in individuals on either side, the wrong things that may have been said and done, men of this generation who have the spirit of Christ ought to remember human frailty, and in the face of the crying need of a united Methodism, forget.

The divergences that have arisen since the division of American Methodism are purely matters of polity and practice. Methodism knows no doctrinal schism anywhere on earth. We do not feel called to seek a union based upon the points of polity peculiar either to the North or the South. Certainly it lies within our power to form, if we will, an entirely new constitution, without the least care as to whether its provisions came from the North or the South, provided only we proceed in a constitutional way. It would be thoroughly consonant with the spirit of John Wesley and, what is even more to the point, thoroughly consonant with the practice of the Apostles and with the whole spirit of the New Testament for us to adopt any form of polity that we should judge to be most for the glory of God. It is not in harmony with the spirit either of Wesley or the New Testament that we should present to earth and heaven the spectacle of a disunited church, with the waste and weakness which are inseparable from such a state of disunion—in this we cannot be justified unless we have sincerely done all we could to heal the breach.

Nor should we wait till all have agreed to a dead uniformity in all sections of the church, doing everything the same way in every place. Such uniformity is not an essential of Christian unity nor even of organic union in the same body. To demand it is to violate the very genius of the Gospel, as it is also to forget the methods of God when he made men, and to depart from the lessons of human history. For liberty in such outward matters is an essential Gospel principle; God did not make men alike; and history shows that men are more efficient when they wear no such yoke of bondage. There is room within our gospel to express the righteousness of Christ in all the rightful varieties of human life, and we may expect it to be so in the practical outworking of the Gospel; it ought to be so. Our Methodism that is to be must take account of so great a fact, and so accommodate itself to customs and conditions and racial tendencies throughout the world. Its only radical and unchangeable insistence ought to be that we shall all alike be thoroughly loyal to the Son of God. We want a church big enough and broad enough to allow liberty in all non-essentials. Nothing else expresses the breadth of the Gospel.

In view of all of which, we do solemnly declare, That we should be very greatly humiliated to see this effort at union fail upon any ground other than upon the ground of some fundamental principle of Christianity. We declare it to be our conviction that the action of our General Conference ought to be interpreted as suggesting a line of action rather than as technically binding our consciences.

CROWDER B. MOSELEY

The man, the preacher, and the missionary. Fruits and not wishes will appear or be wanting at the final assize, and be the only evidence of living called for by the Judge.

Crowder B. Moseley, our brother and faithful comrade, is safe and will pass unchallenged by that test. Good results were constant effects of his daily living. His parents were of the best people in every respect, finely toned in mind and spirit, cultured to the standard of the best ideal in the old Southland. Their piety was marked and beautiful. His father dying early in his boyhood, the care and culture of the children fell wholly upon the mother, who proved worthy and competent to the task. He professed saving faith in early boyhood, and joined the Methodist Church.

In 1881 his mother committed him to Jerome Haralson, then President of Quitman College, who took him into his family, and entered him into his course of education in the college. After two years of close application he sent him to Vanderbilt University, where he completed the literary and theological courses.

He was licensed to preach in 1880, or 1881. As a young preacher, he was often discouraged at his efforts to preach. At such times he sought his loving, sympathizing friend, Mrs. Haralson, who always brought him out all right. He was more of a teacher than preacher. While at Vanderbilt he became acquainted with young Dr. W. R. Lambuth, now Bishop, and a mutual admiration grew into warm friendship between them. When the Doctor came to return to his place in China as a missionary with his father, at his request, the Board of Missions accepted and appointed our sainted brother, Crowder B. Moseley, to that field, and when our church came to enter Japan, the Lambuths, father and son, were asked to take that work, and they took their much loved Crowder with them. He, therefore, was one of our first missionaries to Japan.

Before leaving China he was married to Miss Reagan, a missionary from the Woman's Board there, who went with him to Japan. They together were assigned school work, in which they remained for the greater part of their long life in that country. Six children came to them, who, with their mother, now mourn their loss. Of Brother Moseley, Bishop Wilson said he was the most important, most useful man in that field.

He gave his entire life to the ministry amongst the heathen people.

His piety and consistent walk illustrated what he preached to the people daily.

When Bishop Wilson came to go to Japan to organize the Japan Church into a separate body, he insisted on Crowder's going with him because of his familiarity with and perfect use of the language.

In that work he remained till a year ago, when his health had so far failed, he took the superannuated relation to the conference and returned to America. His father-in-law, Rev. Reagan, was then living at Seattle, Washington. He stopped there, intending only a visit, but circumstances combined persuaded him to remain there. His physical condition grew worse until Aug. 17, 1916, the Master called him up to the upper fold. So a good man lived and was not, for God took him. His loving Lord has charge of his loved ones, and all will continue well with them.

TRIBUTE TO REV. F. A. JEFFETT

Rev. Francis Asbury Jeffett was born in Norfolk, Virginia, January 13, 1849, and died at Cotton Plant, Arkansas, October 22, 1916. Brother Jeffett was religious from childhood, having joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when a boy and walked in the faith of the fathers for more than a half century. He was the son of a Methodist minister, and born in an itinerant's parsonage. He came to Arkansas in 1877 and was stationed at Fayetteville. He was transferred to the White River Conference in 1883 from the Arkansas Conference, and stationed at Searcy. He served Searcy in 1884, Searcy District in 1885, Helena Station in 1886-7-8. He was appointed agent for Galloway College in 1889 and served two years, when he was placed on the Searcy District and served in 1891-2-3. He served Searcy Station 1894-5-6-7; Paragould Station 1898-9-1900-1. He was then sent to the Paragould District for one year, then to Marianna Station for 1903-4-5-6, and to Helena Station for 1907-8-9. He was then on the supernumerary list for 1910. At the close of the year he was placed on the effective list and stationed at Cotton Plant, where he served for four years ending in 1914, and was stationed at Brinkley, where he closed his active ministry and superannuated that fall and moved to Cotton Plant, where he lived a great sufferer without murmur, but with cheer and sunshine he met his friends and made them feel that they were in the presence of a saint of God. The end came not unexpectedly, but at a time when all were looking for the Master's call. The way was clear. No shadows bedimmed his sunset. His end was peace and the fruit of his well-spent life will ripen and be gathered in until the Master bids time to be no more and he with us is caught up to meet Him in the air.

He was educated in Randolph-Macon College, where he graduated.

Brother Jeffett was a man moved by convictions rather than by notions. His utterances were strong, his English smooth and words chosen to fit. His preaching was of a high order, his sympathies deep, and his emotions easily stirred. He rests beneath the shades in the city of the dead in the town of Cotton Plant, Arkansas. He was buried by the writer, assisted by his pastor, Rev. B. L. Harris, and his old conference classmate, Rev. W. W. Anderson, of Searcy.

We miss him about the homestead and in the house of God and will miss him at the gathering of the brethren at the Annual Conference, but we feel that we know where to find him. May his mantle fall on his sons and may peace be multiplied unto his lonely companion.

REV. THOMAS MARTIN

Rev. Thomas Martin was born in McDonald County, Mo., May 9th, 1875. His parents moved to Arkansas when Thomas was only two years old, and he grew to manhood amid the surroundings of country life in the northwestern part of our state. Convictions of duty came to him early in life and he definitely dedicated his life to God at the age of fifteen and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In this he showed his strength of decision, for his parents were not Methodists. His call to preach came with his decision to dedicate his life to God in service. From this consciousness of duty he shrank with a reserve that was natural to his life. Feeling his lack of preparation and distrusting his own natural endowments, he struggled against his convictions for fifteen years. On October 7th, 1907, Brother Martin was licensed to exhort by the Elm Springs Quarterly Conference. He was licensed to preach April 30th, 1908. He was recommended for admission into the annual conference by the same conference which gave him license to preach. He was appointed to Springtown Circuit, where he served for two years, 1909-10. His second charge was the Charleston Circuit, where he served for three years. He served Alma Station for one year, and Midland Heights, Fort Smith, one year. On account of failing health he was sent to Gravette and Decater charge with the hope that lighter work and higher climate would rebuild his strength and save him to the church.

In all these fields of labor Brother Martin proved himself a man sent from God. He never disappointed his brethren. The church prospered under his ministry in all of its work. Everywhere he went he was loved and honored as a faithful servant of God, and people followed his leadership because they believed in him.

Brother Martin was happily married to Miss Eva Godard, who was a helpmate indeed to him in his chosen life work. To this union were born two sons, Millard and Roy, who together with their mother are left to bear their sorrow together.

Brother Martin's going was sudden. He preached in his pulpit at Gravette Sunday morning, April 30th. Before the hour for the evening service God had called him to his reward and he was ready to go. When the messenger came, he found him doing the things he was sent to do. From the pulpit where he had preached the day before, his funeral was conducted amidst a large congregation of sorrowing friends. His body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Elm Springs near the old church where he began his Christian life and where he was recommended for the ministry. Many strong men wept as they looked into his noble face, now cold in death. He had not lived in vain. His memory and influence will go down through the years to come.

G. G. DAVIDSON.

REV. VANDER T. McCaffrey

The morning dawn of November 20, 1883, marked the beginning of the life of the Rev. Vander T. McCaffrey. He was born in Clay County, Alabama, and there he grew to manhood and received his early education. In 1903 he felt the pressure of God calling him into specific work for His kingdom. He wisely accepted the call as one to greater preparation. Without hesitation, he made his arrangements and entered Birmingham College, and during his first year there he was licensed to preach by Rev. Thomas Slaughter, D. D., presiding elder of the Birmingham District. After four years in college he taught one year and then entered Vanderbilt University, where he graduated in 1911. He immediately entered the Summer course at the University of Chicago, and remained to the close of the following term, when he was appointed to fill a vacancy at Swifton and Alicia, Ark., where he remained two years, and was then appointed to Holly Grove and Marvell charge. From this he returned to the University of Chicago for further and more specific preparation for his life work, and the high calling of God. In the fall of 1915 he returned to the North Arkansas Conference and was admitted on trial and appointed to Parkin Station, where he made full proof of his ministry until the sad accident, while in bathing with his Boy Scouts, which resulted in his death at his father's home, Talladega, Ala. His sun went down in a clear sky while it was yet high noon in a cultured life of deep consecration. October 10, 1916, at 12:15 a. m., surrounded by father, mother, four brothers and four sisters in the home of his parents his immortal spirit returned to God who gave it. On Wednesday, October 11, he was placed in the city of the dead at old Bethlehem Church, 22 miles south of Talladega, where he was born and grew to manhood and where he preached his first sermon. This providence is more than human mind can solve. With such consecrated intelligence, backed by native ability, we feel that he was a born preacher, a close student, a clear thinker and had a delivery that impressed the most cultured mind that he had a message from God for all the people. In lonely sadness, with a prayer that God may fill his place among us with a greater, we uncomplainingly say good-bye.

MRS. A. C. GRIFFIN

Sister Ava Eveline Griffin (nee Rooks), wife of Rev. A. C. Griffin, was born in Gibson County, Tenn., April 22, 1848, moved with her parents to Poinsett County, Arkansas, before the Civil War. Married the Rev. A. C. Griffin April 7, 1869; joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the fourth Sunday in August, 1870, under the ministry of the sainted John M. Steele, remaining a true, faithful, loyal member until Our Father called her to her eternal home from her home in Paragould, Ark., January 24, at 6 p. m.

Brother and Sister Griffin married only a few months before he was licensed to preach, hence Sister Griffin has been his faithful and true help-mate all the days of his long and useful ministerial life.

With the passing away of Sister Griffin one of the old landmarks is removed. She was a wife and mother after the type of former years, a keeper at home, a faithful wife, a devoted mother, a loyal and truly active and consecrated church member.

She feared not the criticism of the world, nor was she attracted by its allurements, but with strong faith in God and a hope securely anchored in the upper sanctuary, she pressed forward with all the strength she had, "always abounding in the work of the Lord."

Sister Griffin was an itinerant preacher's wife years ago, when it required privations and sacrifices, but cheerfully and gladly she bore it all without a murmur, remaining at home when there was no railroad, telegraph, or telephone, while Brother Griffin went to preach the gospel to his people.

She loved her church and was active in its service, knew how to lead sinners to Christ, and many were converted under her influence and through her instrumentality.

The funeral services were conducted in our church at Harrisburg by the undersigned, assisted by Revs. J. F. Jernigan, H. E. May, and T. A. Bowen. Then at Old Bolivar Cemetery we laid the body of Sister Griffin beside the five children who have gone before to remain until the glorious resurrection.

Brother Griffin is left alone, his whole family has gone to await his coming. He has the sympathy and prayers of numerous friends. The Lord bless and care for his aged and faithful servant.

M. M. SMITH.

MRS. O. J. BEARDSLEE

Mrs. O. J. Bearslee, wife of Rev. O. J. Beardslee, was born in Genessee, Ill., December 23, 1856. She married O. J. Beardslee November 20, 1878, in Moline, Ill.; died at Clarks, La., February 9, 1916.

This faithful Christian woman was closely identified with the Methodist Church in Arkansas in most efficient service for fifteen years, eight as a member of our church at Redfield, Ark., and seven as an itinerant with her husband in the Little Rock and Arkansas Conferences. Those years at Redfield were years of hard and trying service. It was in the days when the town was new, whiskey was sold, the country rough and the church weak. She was one of three or four good women who stood by the church in faithful, prayerful service, building up what afterwards became a strong Christian community. She was modest and retiring in her nature, but there was in her character an uncompromising devotion and an unfailing courage. As organist, Sunday school teacher, or for any work, she gave herself in unstinted service. She made a good preacher's wife. In this position she was the same cheerful, cheering and brave spirit. She had a genius for friendship and was unfailing in her thoughtful kindness. All who came within the circle of her influence were made to feel the warmth of her love. In her character were combined, in rare strength and beauty, those elements that adorn true Christian womanhood. She is survived by her husband, son and daughter, and three grand-children, but to them she is not dead, only gone on before.

STATISTICAL TABLE NO. 3—NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE
RECAPITULATION

[illegible]

100 Years

The American Bible Society

WANTS TO DISTRIBUTE THE LARGEST NUMBER OF BIBLES AND TESTAMENTS EVER DISTRIBUTED IN ONE YEAR. WE ASK THE HEARTY CO-OPERATION OF ALL OUR PEOPLE IN THIS LAUDABLE UNDERTAKING.

Bibles and Testaments at the cost of production. Testaments 6 cents and up. Bibles 17 cents and up.

Good Large Print Testament and Psalms.....27c
Good Practical Home Bible.....85c

Higher grades at just as reasonable prices.

“Every pastor a colporteur and the Bible in every home.”

For Bibles and Testaments and for Literature, address

D. H. Colquette, State Agent
Conway, Arkansas
